Willow Tree Nelson is an adapted 3-bedroom venue for holidays or respite situated in the beautiful seaside town of Gorleston-on-Sea. The house has been renovated by a charity called Willow Tree in Great Yarmouth for families and individuals that need a bit extra when staying away from home. The rental goes into the charity, and it is run on a voluntary basis. They cater for holidays/respite for a minimum of 7 days, Saturday to Saturday. If you require anything different, please get in touch.

Willow Tree Nelson has a comfortable and spacious living/dining area with access to a private enclosed courtyard, and a modern fully equipped kitchen. There are 2 x Ground Floor Bedrooms (1 x Single and 1 x Twin). There is a ground floor accessible wet room with changing plinth and an additional shower room. On the First Floor is 1 x Double Bedroom with en-suite.

A wide range of mobility equipment is available to guests including a profiling bed, mobile hoist, changing plinth, adjustable supported mobile living room armchair, grab rails, 2 x shower seat and a half height shower screen. There is level access throughout Willow Tree Nelson and widened doorways, and it combines original features with a nautical theme. There is a private parking bay opposite the house.

Gorleston-on-Sea lies just to the south of the popular resort of Great Yarmouth, and visitors to the town can enjoy the harbour, pier, and the beautiful sandy beach.
